1889. Harper's Bazar. ILLUS RATED.

Harper's Harar is a home journal. It combines choice literature and fine art illustrations with the latest intelligence regarding the fashions. Each number has clever serial and short stories, prastical and timely essays, bright poems, humorous sketches, etc. Its pattern-sheet and fashion-plate supplements will alone help lating the subscription, and papers on social etimete, decorative art, house-keeping in all its branches, cookery, etc., make at useful in every household, and a true promoter of economy. Its editorials are marked by good sense, and not a line is admitted to the colours that could offend the most fastidious taste.

HARPER'S PERIODICLS.

The Volumes of the Barar begin with the first Number for January of each year When no time is mentioned, subscriptions will begin with the Number current stime of receipt of order.

And for the Democracy. Tim Sun believes that the campaign for election of a Democratic Congress in 20 and a Democratic President in 1992 outld begin on or about the fourth of ext March. The Sun will be on hand

The great fact of the year is the return to absoint power of the common enemy of all good Democrats—the political organization for whose overthrow The Sux lought at the front for fitteen years, the memorable years of Grant and the Frand Hayes, and Garfield and Arthur.

It is the same old enemy that Democrats now confront, and he will be in treached in the same strong position. It has been carried once by brave and hopeful lighting. Do you not believe with The Sux that the thing can be done again? Wait and see!

The hope of the Democracy is in the loyal efforts of a united press, cherishing no memories of past differences in non-essentials, torgetting everything but the lessons of experience, and that victory is a duty.
